Zoom & Tell: Connecting Collectors Across the World

By David Ray

NCC is an organization with members spread across the United States, Canada, and Japan. With many significant improvements in technology, NCC has launched a new monthly event called Zoom & Tell. The goal of Zoom & Tell is to provide a forum for people to socialize with fellow collectors and learn about Cambridge glass.

Each month, a specified theme will help guide the discussion. Members are highly encouraged to share information about pieces of glass from their collection, but that is not a requirement to participate. You will receive an email containing a link to the online session as well as directions explaining how to join. If NCC does not have your email address and you would like to join the meeting, please send your email address to membership@cambridgeglass.org.

The theme of the first Zoom & Tell session in November was Amber. Several members shared information about pieces of Amber in their collection.

A variety of items were shared including a #1 Caprice goblet, a #62 Caprice bowl, a #3011 nude cigarette box etched Diane, a #1002 aquarium etched E736, a #210 tobacco jar etched Cleo, an assortment of 3104 stems, a #1402/93 pretzel jar, an amazing display of Amber Rose Point and much more. The most rewarding aspect of the session was seeing members from across the country who all share a similar passion for collecting Cambridge glass.

The sessions will be recorded. A link to the recording will be posted on the NCC website, so if you are unable to attend, you can watch the event at your convenience.

The following Zoom & Tell sessions are planned for the 3rd Thursday of the month at 7 PM Ohio time.

December	Forest Green
January	Crystal (undecorated)
February	Carmen
March	Light Emerald

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A New Year?

Ah, a new year, and a whole new set of possibilities. Like everyone else, I agree that 2020 is a year to put behind us. As an organization, we had our challenges in 2020 and some bright spots. I've heard from people that one of the activities that they missed, is getting out and going to glass shows. I agree, nearly all the shows were cancelled in 2020. Even some January and February shows have been cancelled. But what about the rest of 2021?

Will we have our March Benefit Auction? The answer at this time is a tentative yes. The board voted to tentatively plan for the auction. Planning for activities and communication has to happen early. We have a number of weeks between now and Saturday March 20th and a lot of uncertainty about what could happen. We will monitor status and keep you informed.

You'll find the auction information and listing in this issue of the Crystal Ball. And yes, it looks just like the list printed a year ago. Bev Acord will be including more information next month about the auction process; in particular, any changes to the absentee bid process.

You should have noticed Cindy Arent's "Puck Light" article and progress thermometer over the past couple of issues. She needed to get the lights ordered early to ensure they arrived before the end of the year, to be ready for installation in January when the museum is closed. I echo her Thank You for supporting the challenge.

At our January meeting, the board of directors will be reviewing and approving our budget for 2021. The budget incorporates what we have learned from prior years and what we think we will do this coming year. The budget provides the financial direction for some of the activities that need to be done in 2021.

Beyond looking at one year, organizations have strategic plans or 5-year plans. Strategic plans are all about why things need to happen. It's big picture, long-term thinking. Strategy has many definitions, but generally involves setting strategic goals, determining actions to achieve the goals, identifying resources to execute the actions. and setting measures to determine if we were successful. Mike Strebler is the committee chair tasked with developing a strategic plan for NCC. This is your organization – what will be important to us in 5-10-15 years? Your ideas are welcome.

We had our June 2020 Annual Meeting as a virtual online meeting. From that, an idea was discussed, resulting in our first Zoom-&-Tell session in November. Re-read David's article on the front page and take note of the schedule for the next three months. If you have the time, join a session and watch. It's easy.

What's coming?

Over the next couple of months, our nominating committee will be soliciting candidates to run for the board of directors. We need your ideas and suggestions. A fresh set of ideas is always appreciated. We are always in need to volunteers to work on projects, some of them can be done virtually.

What's on your Cambridge "wish list" for this year and beyond, and how can we help?

Be safe. Be careful. Take the correct precautions.

Sincerely,

Freeman Moore

Museum Puck Light Fundraiser Update

By Cindy Arent

Very soon, the drilling and electrical work will begin. The new puck lights have arrived! I can't begin to thank our donors for their generosity, truly amazing. We were very fortunate that the order arrived in time so the work can begin early January.

It was very important that we have the new lights ready to be installed because of the dirt created in each showcase. All of the glassware will need to be removed in each case, the lights will be installed and then the case can be cleaned for the 2021 season, over 9,000 pieces.

Thank you very much for your support, it means so much to us!

Thank you everyone!

Happy New Year to Everyone!

By Cindy Arent

For many, 2020 was a never ending saga of masks, hand sanitizer and cleaning. It was the same for museum volunteers. However, each time we began to feel discouraged, friendly faces would arrive at the museum or call to cheer us up. I would like to thank the NCC membership for your support and kind words of encouragement. We survived the 2020 season with better than expected gift shop sales, admissions and good publicity. Speaking of nice publicity, the following comment was recently posted on the Museum's Facebook page by Pat Williamsen, Executive Director of Ohio Humanities. "You must visit this gem of Ohio history, industry and ingenuity! One of the finest museums in Ohio!"

The Annual Holiday Open House was successful. In addition to the happy visitors, phone calls were received requesting assistance in ordering from the museum gift shop. Several boxes of Cambridge Glass and ornaments were shipped from the museum during the holiday season and we even offered curbside pick-up. It has become a tradition for members Nathan and Jill Koman and their family to attend the Museum Holiday Open House. Each year they dress as Cambridge Glassworkers for a family photo. The children have grown so much since the tradition began!

During the holiday season we also had our first TikTok influencer visit the museum. Joey Kinsley/Sir Yacht spent two days visiting Cambridge and posted a video on TikTok, and other social media accounts, that showed all area attractions in just 60 seconds. It was very popular and we had visitors from out of the area that visited the museum and mentioned that the reason they came was Joey's TikTok post. His visit to Cambridge was arranged by the Cambridge/Guernsey County Visitors & Convention Bureau.

Every year in late fall, the dreaded leaves from Founder's Cemetery (directly behind the museum) continually fall on the museum and surrounding property. Many hours are spent by volunteers bagging the leaves that pile up in front of the museum entrance. Even the neighbors jump in to help when they can.

However, this year was different. One day after a windstorm, armed with large leaf blowers, Lindy Thaxton and I blew everything we could from around all three buildings back toward the cemetery. Joe Miller then arrived with the mower and mulched what hadn't been blown. We left knowing that the leaves would return with the next strong wind. After arriving home, I checked the museum security cameras on my phone and couldn't believe it, the piles of leaves were gone! A big "Thank You" to the City of Cambridge Street Department for coming with their truck to clean up all the leaves behind the museum and parking lot. It was much appreciated and really made our day!

Since every picture tells a story, this month I wanted share a time capsule of a few of the museum happenings during the holiday season. Again, thank you all for your support and Best Wishes for a Healthy and Happy 2021.

Nathan & Jill Koman and family

The 2020 Museum Group Tour Team safely guided our guests through the glass display area and fun educational activities. One guest said that on a scale of 1 to 10, her museum experience was 12 stars. What a nice thing to say! : Seated - Cindy Arent, Anna Pavlov; Standing (L-R) Sharon Bachna, Laura King, Sharon Miller, Diana McMahon, Lindy Thaxton and Sandi Rohrbough Sisters Jennifer Orme Zavaleta and Mindy Orme visit the museum every year. They are the daughters of William Orme of The Cambridge Glass Company. We missed seeing their sister, Pam, this year!

California member Jennifer Waldeck visited the museum during the holiday season. It was so nice to see Jennifer again!

Members Darrell and Linda Howell enjoyed looking for Moonlight Caprice and shopping at the museum during the holiday season.

Member Bret Price volunteered to help with some heavy lifting and transporting boxes to the NCC Storage Building. Thank you for your help!

NCC member Julie Davey collects everything Rose Point. Now she even has a pair of Rose Point shoes, we love them!

TikTok Influencer Joey Kinsley had fun learning about the handmade glassmaking process. Thank you for visiting!

The number of passengers on each of our motorcoach groups this year was about half of what usually arrives. They were all very polite and enjoyed the National Museum of Cambridge Glass.

Welcome to the eBay Report, featuring Cambridge glass items that sold on eBay circa mid-October to mid-December 2020. Selling prices are rounded to the nearest dollar. If no color is mentioned, assume that the piece or part of it being discussed is crystal. If I refer to an auction as "incognito," that means that the seller did not know he or she was offering Cambridge glass, and didn't list the item in one of the Cambridge glass categories. Here we go:

Statuesque (Nude Stem) Items

A pair of wines with Carmen bowls sold for $124. The same seller offered another pair, one Royal Blue and one Forest Green, which sold for $134. It was so nice to see a nude stem identified correctly as to size.

An ashtray with Pistachio green top sold for $250.

A set of 6 brandies or late cordials with satinized stem, two each in Amber, Royal Blue, and Amethyst, sold for $305.

Gold, Silver, Platinum and Enamel Decorations

A #3400/152 80 ounce Doulton style pitcher with gold encrusted Wildflower etching sold for $165 on a Buy It Now offering.

A #1023 vase in Light Emerald Green with #D/185 Dancing Ladies etching and the #2100 Greek Key border etching sold for $330 Buy It Now in an incognito listing. I reported on an identical one in the June/July issue, which sold for $258, also in an incognito listing.

A seller offered a pair of #1612/1614 16 inch Dolphin Hurricane lamps with flared hurricane chimneys etched and gold encrusted Wildflower, the bobeches mounted with the "flat on one side, beveled on the other" style prisms for $350, but the auction was ended by the seller because the item was "no longer available." Hmmmm...

A #49 Seashell 10-1/4 inch flared vase with the four seashells on top of the foot, decorated with the silver deposit seahorse decoration and silver outline trim sold for $444 in very competitive bidding.

A pair of #50 dolphin 8-1/2 inch candleholders (square base with notched corners) in Crown Tuscan with Charleton enamel decoration of roses and gold trim sold for $500.

A #1242 10-3/4 inch vase in Royal Blue with the DePasse Pearsall sterling silver overlay decoration of the swan and cattails sold for $2,025. I reported on another one just like it back in my April 2019 report, which sold for $935, and another in September 2019 for only $699.

A #1305 9 inch keyhole stem vase in Royal Blue with white enamel Hawthorne (Japanica) decoration sold for $4,038. Minor scratching and some enamel loss to one flower were noted.

Etched Tableware and Stemware

A pair of 4 inch high Tally Ho stems with a grape etching, possibly cocktails, sold for $13 in an incognito listing. I am not sure whether these had the Catawba grape etching, the Martha grape etching, or uncatalogued etching #4001. Readers?

A rare #3500/130 4 in. oval handled ashtray etched Portia, which had been listed repeatedly at higher prices, finally sold for $50.

A pair of 5-1/2 inch flat-bottom epergne peg vases etched Chantilly sold for $75 Buy It Now.

A #937 68 oz. ice lip jug etched #1029 and 6 #1680 12 oz. tumblers in Light Emerald Green, etched #1028 (see the Uncatalogued Etchings book page 8) was offered in an incognito listing, and sold for the $80 opening bid.

Two Cambridge pitchers etched Marjorie were offered by the same seller. A #108 7-3/8 inch tall 3-1/2 pint jug with a couple of chips on the handle sold for $64. I magnified the close ups of the “chips,” and honestly, they looked to me like they could actually be acid leaks. The #93 9 inch 3-pint jug sold for $133.

Miscellaneous

A Martha Washington 7-1/2 inch footed cone-shaped vase in Heatherbloom sold for only $37, perhaps due to some scratching on the foot. I believe this was made from the same mold as the fan vase, but was simply not flattened on the sides.

A pair of #71-1/2 candlesticks with the West Point Military Academy crest etching on the base sold for $50 in a Buy It Now offering. These are rarely seen in this 8-1/2 inch size.

One of my favorite items this month was a Peach Blo #1235 Decagon 10 inch wide bowl, very deep, paired with a matching 10-3/4 inch plate. But it wasn't the bowl and underplate that made my jaw drop, it was the matching Peach Blo #609 fancy-handled salad spoon and fork that came with them. When, when, WHEN do you see these? This 4 piece salad set sold for a too-cheap $55. This had to have been an original pairing – perhaps a wedding present, cherished for many years. You can find the early, fancy version of the spoon and fork shown in that Cambridge reference book I'm always begging you to buy and add to your library. Interestingly, a very PLAIN salad fork and salad spoon, assigned the same line number, is shown on page J of the 1930-1934 catalog reprints. Why on earth were the gorgeous, fancy #609s dropped, and plain ones swapped in? Were the fancy ones hard to get out of the mold, maybe? You can see that these would have been poured into a vertical mold, and the handle ends ground and polished. In any case, the purchaser of these items is given the “Michael Krumme Connoisseur's Choice Award” for this reporting period. I'm sorry, there is no prize – you simply get to pat yourself on the back for having discerning good taste and appreciation for the scarce and beautiful.

A set of 8 Caprice #16 finger bowls in Moonlight Blue sold for $134.

A pair of Caprice #73 “reflector” style candleholders sold for $180 in spirited bidding. I know they are not known to have been made in Moonlight Blue, but can you imagine what a pair in that color might sell for? It's fun to fantasize about things that don't exist, isn't it?

Someone grabbed a #1242 11 inch vase with the Achilles cutting by the heel for $133.

One seller offered a real groaner of an auction: SIX Cambridge prism style advertising signs, one each in crystal, Ebony, Moonlight Blue, Light Emerald Green, Amber, and Royal Blue, for $235 in a Buy It Now offering. They disappeared quickly. The green one had a chip on the corner. Oddly, seller would not ship – “Local Pickup Only.” How hard could it be to ship these?

A #3400/23 10 inch vase in Peach Blo etched Apple Blossom sold for $250 Buy It Now.

A #463 Amber bowl with the dolphin head handles at the sides and Mount Vernon style base, sold for the opening bid of $275, on its second offering.

A covered Turkey jar in Amber trotted away for $411.

A Tally Ho 1402/77 13 inch footed punch bowl and 12 #1402/78 6 ounce punch mugs in Carmen sold for $950. Some scratching on the inside of the bowl was noted.

Updates to Last Month's Report

An avid reader contacted me regarding the badly damaged Cleo “covered candy” I reported on in the November report. He said, “You are right it's damaged, however it is in fact the No. 431 - 5” Candy Box and Cover which was also available with Rose Knob.” I stand corrected, but the question remains... did they just use the finger bowl as a base?

That's it for now. If you see any interesting Cambridge glass on eBay that you think I should be watching or reporting on, or if you have any other input, feel free to contact me at LAGlass@pacbell.net. I am well aware that I don't catch every interesting listing, especially those in a category other than Cambridge. Until next time, happy Cambridge hunting!
