I/We hereby agree to the following conditions:

1. The Lessor shall not be responsible for any injury or loss that may arise or come to the lessee, or his employees, or his goods, from any cause, while said premises are occupied under this agreement.

3. The management will provide tables and chairs. Each standard booth will consist of four (4) eight-foot tables. You may bring your own small table for wrapping and selling.
4. Helpers may be used to move items into the show building and also used to help set up the dealers show space. Helpers will be confined to the dealer booth after a dealer's items have been moved inside. Helpers will not be allowed to roam the floor. Helpers are the dealer's responsibility. Helpers that are found to be in violation of this policy will be asked to leave and not allowed to return during setup.

9. Exhibits should be limited to items that are definitely old or collectible, and suitable to the character of an Elegant Depression Glass Show. All merchandise should be clean, and clearly priced. Booths will be screened.
10. Please be sure your table covers go to the floor, unless you are displaying merchandise under the table. Boxes and packing materials must be out of sight.
11. Local fire regulations must be observed.
12. The management will not provide insurance. All insurance will be the responsibility of the exhibitor. I/We hereby relieve the management, the National Cambridge Collectors, and the Pritchard Laughlin Civic Center of all responsibility.
13. No one will be permitted in the showroom after the closing time.
14. Deposit on exhibit space is NOT TRANSFERABLE or returnable if said lease is canceled after May 15, 2012. It is further agreed that should I/We fail to appear for said show, that I/We shall be liable for the balance of the rental fee for the booth. If the Lessee notifies the management before June 6, 2012, that due to illness or other "just cause", they will be unable to attend, then only the deposit is forfeited.
