Welcome to the future...

This is the first issue of the NCC’s electronic newsletter, The E-Crystal Ball. It has been over a year in the making; there was much planning and a good deal of necessary computer education to be done. On behalf of all those involved along the way, I want to welcome you to the beginning of a new kind of communication for the NCC.

As with any new project, especially one dependant on largely unfamiliar technology, there may be a fly or two in the ointment. I ask for your patience and understanding. I know we won’t get it perfect right from the start, but we’re going to do our very best.

Your comments and suggestions are welcome; just click on the green star below for a direct link to the Crystal Ball’s e-mail. I am eager to hear your impressions and ideas.

I hope you enjoy it.

In a modern world of mind-numbing conveniences, Pentium IV computers, microwave ovens, cell phones, supersonic jets and nuclear reactors; it is no wonder that simple pleasures - pleasures that can be understood, like the beauty of Cambridge glass - bring us such comfort. Comfort as we live with it in our otherwise somewhat confusing and cluttered lives. There is something therapeutic in its raw beauty, something hypnotic in the play of sunlight on glass, something relaxing about it, when you hold it in your hands. When you see it in your home it brings a special peace and warmth that makes all those other cold conveniences of the modern era much easier to live with. In the sterile world we live in, separation from others is a real danger that is magically lessened because of the relationships forged through appreciation of Cambridge glass.

Now I know when you read this, the holiday season will have passed and we will all have our New Year’s resolutions freshly established. But I am actually writing this in mid December and that is glass washing time around our home. Each year at this time, we do one of those big cleanings, getting ready for all the company. I’m sure you know what I mean. Considering the vast number of glass pieces some of us have, this is no small task. I have to admit that I begin this job with a large amount of trepidation, considering the daunting amount of time that must be expended. However, this year as in many others, once I begin I become transported into a less frenzied state of mind. There is something therapeutic about the process. Maybe it is to do with the memories of where, when and how you came to own each piece. Certainly, it has to do with the memories of who you were with, the friends, and the loved ones that you associate with each purchase. Nothing sterile about that.

The most enjoyable part of the grand wash is the rearranging of the glass itself. The bringing together of pieces from all over the place, to create new and breathtaking displays. The mental cataloging of what we have, and just as importantly what we wish we had. The joy of playing the “if you could have any piece” game, what piece would it be? I was fortunate to get a look at this year’s NCC Auction list, which I believe is in this issue. Whoa, now wait a minute; don’t go yet. It will only take a second more to finish this column before you go look at the list, and perhaps I can whet your appetite with a few amazing tidbits. Now if “you could have any piece” would it be a piece of red J aponica or a violet Mt Vernon tall sherbet or an ivory plate etched Willow with blue enamel or a very rare Carmen heart plate. NO?!? Those are not your “if you could have any piece” items; well, how about a blue airplane samovar, or a pair of Gold Krystol cherub candle sticks, a smoke crackle Nude or a Royal Blue pretzel jar and cover. If any or all of those are your “what ifs” then you had better plan to be part of this years NCC Auction, because those items and many, many more are going to be up for sale. As I continue to wash glass and re-arrange I am leaving a couple of holes for my “if I could have any piece” items, which I hope I will be lucky enough to bring home. Being there in person is one of those moments, filled with it’s own alchemy, which is somehow mystifyingly rejuvenating. However, if you can’t join us in person, join us in spirit and don’t forget to get in your mail bids.

The auction was the first NCC event that my wife, Jane, and I attended after becoming members of the Club. It sealed our NCC destinies. A year later, our good friends Gail & Paul Duchamp traveled with us to the Auction. They then became NCC members and have since become very involved in the club. Why not bring a friend with you to this year’s Auction and let this incredible event continue to work it’s magic. I can’t help but believe that once someone experiences the NCC Auction, membership is sure to follow.

In another direction, I am sure you will soon notice that the NCC website will have a different look and feel. That is because we will be welcoming aboard a new webmaster, David Adams. David and his wife, Linda, did the NCC Glass Show last year and got caught up with the Club’s energy and will be adding their special talents to the NCC family.

I would like to take this opportunity to give a heartfelt, “Thank You,” to Linda Roberts. Linda spent many years fixing the chaotic NCC website and creating a professional, as well as informative, example of what can be done with this kind of technology. Linda worked diligently for NCC and when you see her, please join me in thanking her for all those efforts.

See you at the auction!
W here’s the eyebay Report?

Because of the inclusion of the 2005 Auction Catalog in this issue, there is no ebay Report this month. The report will return in February.

We would like to hear from you about the ebay Report. Is it interesting? Is it helpful? What would you like more of? Or less of? Your feedback is most welcome.

In Memoriam

We recently learned of the passing of long-time NCC member Norman Mason. He died suddenly in early November in Florida.

Norman had been a good friend and supporter of our organization, and had recently been a dealer at our show.

We extend condolences to his family.
Sid Garrett, Former Factory Worker, Dies at 89

George “Sid” Garrett, who worked as a glass cutter for Cambridge Glass, died on November 30, 2004. He was 89 years old.

Sid was born in Cambridge in 1915. After the closing of the Cambridge Glass plant, he worked at LaFlo Glass, and later as treasurer of the Degenhart Glass Museum.

Sid was always a good friend of the NCC; he attended many of the club’s annual Workers Reunions. Just last year, he spent time at the museum helping to set up the cutting room display in the new Education Center.

Sid Garret, a beloved member of the Cambridge Glass family, will be missed.

Taking “Issue” With Your Newsletter

Mysteriously, your crack Crystal Ball staff (OK, I admit it, just your Crystal Ball editor) somehow managed to misnumber two recent issues of The Crystal Ball.

The November 2004 issue should have been Issue #379. The December 2004 issue should have been Issue #380.

The current (January) issue is numbered #381, as it should be. We apologize for any confusion or inconvenience.

Proposed By-Laws Amendment

At their November meeting, the NCC Board of Directors approved an amendment to the By-laws, relating to the way Board meetings are run. The proposed Amendment reads as follows:

Article I, Section 5 shall be deleted, and replaced by the following text:

Section 5. Rules of Order

The Board of Directors shall establish Rules of Order for its meetings.

The effect of this Amendment will be to relieve the Board of the current obligation to use Roberts’ Rules of Order in operating meetings of the Board. In most cases, Board meetings can be run more efficiently without the strict adherence to Roberts’, and the Board felt (by unanimous vote) that allowing more discretion in the operation of Board meetings would be helpful.

The Amendment allows the Board to impose Roberts’ (or any other parliamentary system) whenever it feels the need to do so.

The passage of this Amendment will result in no cost or financial obligation to the NCC.

This Amendment to the By-laws will be presented to the membership for a vote at the March Quarterly Meeting.

Study Group #16
Elegant Glass Collectors

The Elegant Glass Collectors Study Group met on November 13th at the home of Ken and Jane Filippini. Members attending were Walter Lee, Tom Mintz, Myrle Scott, Bill and Yvonne Dufftt, Bob and Karen Arnold, Joanne Berringer and Lee and Harriet Broadwin.

Jane Filippini, President called the meeting to order at 2:00 PM.

Old Business:
The fundraiser idea of The Arnolds from our last meeting was again discussed. The members voted and agreed to proceed. Ken thanked them both for their efforts in getting this fundraiser off the ground and following through on all the details.

New Business:
A discussion ensued regarding NCC’s need for more members and what could be done to encourage others to join the National Club. Several ideas were to take membership forms to shows, e-mail links and pop ups on e-bay. A suggestion was made to create a membership committee to include a few people from each study group with ideas to recruit new members. The committee head is Freeman Moore. The Auction in March was also discussed.

The Program for this meeting was Vases. What a spectacular collection we had. Some of them are as follows: 4 1/2” 237 Caprice base, milk glass with farber gold clip-on, Black 736 vase with peacock etch, Apple Blossom 1303 crystal etch on foot, 1242 Carmen Diane, 1023 Apple etch. He also brought a pink Fenton with Ming etch. It was a very informative program.

Show and Tell: Tally Ho candle stick crystal with Ye Olde Ivy etch on foot, a Wildflower demitasse with gold banding and a pink Portia celery dish with a gadroon edge brought by Bill. A pair of New Martinsville Radiance with Meadow Reef etch red candle holders and a banquet goblet with Vichy etch on a nude brought by Bob and Karen.

Our next study group meeting will be at Myrle Scott’s home on January 8th. The theme will be Stemware. Each person is to bring at least one etched stem to be used during dinner. The meeting was closed and we enjoyed friendship and good food.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Duchamp, Secretary
with help from Myrle Scott

Study Group #17
Columbus Wildflowers

On Thursday, December 2nd, 2004, the Wildflowers met at the home of Rose MacConkey at 6:00 pm for our annual Christmas Potluck and Gift Exchange. Our first order of business was to enjoy a wonderful dinner of honey baked ham with all the side dishes; including sweet potato casserole, green bean casserole, macaroni & cheese and cranberry salad; and then a variety of delicious desserts – Hummingbird cake, Pineapple Upside Down cake, and pecan and Dutch apple pies.

Our only business was to note that the Museum’s display cases inside Penny Court in Cambridge, which help to peak interest in Cambridge Glass at times when the museum is closed, have been completed by the Wildflowers with the help of Mark Nye, and include a variety of Cambridge Glass displays which will be changed periodically. In place of a formal meeting, our hostess, Rose MacConkey, read two humorous stories about an unusual church sermon and the Pillsbury Dough Boy. We also had three fun and rowdy Christmas Contests.

Linda Speakman won a Snowman kitchen timer for completing the missing words in lines of Christmas Carols and then she also won a Christmas tree pie plate for the highest score in the Christmas Tree Scavenger Hunt. Linda Roberts won a Santa oven glove for naming the most Cambridge Glass colors from the Color Book.

Next came our rousing “Robber Gift Exchange” where we could choose a gift off the table or steal someone else’s. After the dust settled, we all had wonderful gifts including: a Daisy Archfoot Basket; Moonlight Blue Caprice footed bowl; Martha Washington three part covered Candy; Moonlight Blue Caprice Cream and Sugar; Mt Vernon footed Candy with silver overlay Grape rim design; five multi-color Farber stem cocktails; a large Crystal Decagon bowl etched Rosalie; and a Chantilly comport with Sterling foot.

Our meeting concluded with an exciting Show and Tell of items recently found by members which included: a 2 Lite Crystal Candlestick etched Candlelight; a Chantilly Marmalade with original Cambridge spoon; a tall Carmen keyhole Vase; Carmen Martha Washington Popcorn bowl with nearly matching underplate; Crystal candlestick and comport with unusual and unknown cuttings; a 9” Crown Tuscan comport with Silver Rockwell Seahorse; 10” and 8” Crown Tuscan Vases, both with Silver Seahorses, but different treatments on the feet (one with a Rockwell paper label); a Violet Arcadia covered Candy; an 8” Crystal Swan with Charleton Roses; giant Ebony Comport with White Gold rim etch; Crystal Basketweave Basket; an unusual “Thirst Quencher” red Cocktail Shaker in the shape of a fire extinguisher; #1066 Ivy ball etched Elaine; large Tulip platter in Amber; unusual 3 footed Bowl with rounded edge in Avocado; a 10” footed bowl with unusual and unknown cuttings; a 9” Crown Tuscan Vases, both with Silver Seahorses, but different treatments on the feet (one with a Rockwell paper label); a Violet Arcadia covered Candy; an 8” Crystal Swan with Charleton Roses; giant Ebony Comport with White Gold rim etch; Crystal Basketweave Basket; an unusual “Thirst Quencher” red Cocktail Shaker in the shape of a fire extinguisher; #1066 Ivy ball etched Elaine; large Tulip platter in Amber; unusual 3 footed Bowl with rounded edge in Avocado; a 3 footed bowl in an almost violet Helio color; and a green vase with gold etched deco design.

Everyone had a great time, and our January 6th meeting will be at the home of Linda Roberts with a topic of “Black and White.” Our meeting adjourned at 10:00 PM.

The Wildflowers want to wish everyone a Very Happy New Year, and new members in the Columbus, Ohio area are always welcome and can contact either Linda Roberts at lrobert2@columbus.rr.com or Barbara Wyrick at bwyr@ee.net

Your New Year’s Resolution

We know you’ve heard this song before, but circumstances compel us to play it once more: The Crystal Ball is in need of articles about glass.

Make it one of your New Year’s Resolutions to send in a story, an anecdote, a research article, or just some musings about your collection. While we want to publish serious educational, historical and research articles; we also like the human interest stories. Every collector has at least a few of those; why not share them with us.

Please send your submissions to NCCCrystalBall@aol.com.

Thanks!
WARNING

Some NCC members have recently been approached on ebay with “second chance” offers. Be extremely wary of these offers; we believe very few of them are legitimate.

If you bid on an auction and do not win, someone claiming to be the seller may contact you. Usually, the pitch is that the winner didn’t complete the purchase, and you - as the under-bidder, are being given a chance to buy the item - sometimes at a reduced price.

These offers may not be coming from the actual seller. Often, the person making this offer is just trying to steal your money; be very, very careful.

If you want to consider a “second chance” offer on ebay, we recommend you do the following: ask the seller to send you a photo of the item taken at a specific, unusual angle. Or ask for a photo of the item sitting on today’s newspaper. What you want is proof that the “seller” actually has the item in his possession.

You may also go back to the original auction listing page and click on “ASK THE SELLER A QUESTION.” This will put you in touch with the person who actually listed the item originally; you can confirm that he/she is truly the one making the “second chance” offer.

Lastly, if the “seller” will not accept PayPal or a credit card, suggest an escrow purchase. If this is rejected, walk away. It seems that the number of con artists on the Internet is always growing, so it pays to be extra careful.

ebay is not the only way... reach over 1,000 motivated Cambridge collectors who want to buy, sell or trade glass... see page 4 for pricing and details.

Meet the New NCC Webmaster, David Adams

David Adams is the new webmaster for the NCC. He has been the webmaster for the National Depression Glass Association for the last several years.

David worked for over 30 years in the computer business, starting off in the “prehistoric” days of the late 1960’s and continuing into the late 1990’s. His focus had always been software, and for the last 20 years or so, he worked as a software support engineer. He retired in 2000.

David and his wife, Linda, live in Las Vegas, Nevada. They were dealers at the NCC Convention this past June. It was their first Convention, and they have indicated that it will certainly not be their last.

David has indicated that he will be changing the “look and feel” of the NCC web site, but wants to retain the content that has been put together by Linda Roberts and a number of member volunteers. He welcomes any suggestions, comments or criticism. The site belongs to the members, and member input is critical to its success.
