We are excited about the wonderful selection of Cambridge glass in this year’s auction to be held on Saturday, March 3, 2018 at the Pritchard Laughlin Civic Center. The preview begins at 8:30 a.m. and the auction starts promptly at 9:30 a.m.

You can review the catalog included in this issue and visit www.cambridgeglass.org to view all the great photographs. We have a fantastic collection of group shots as well as individual shots of each lot.

We began preparations for the 2018 NCC Auction in August when consignors sent us their proposed lists. Like last year, there were many consignors who submitted a little less than 1000 items to select from. In order to limit the auction to one day we narrowed the selection to 424 items. This is one of the hardest parts of the process as there was so much wonderful glass to choose from. Those items that were not selected please hold until next year!

We utilized the Yellow house next to the Museum to unpack, photograph, sort into auction order and repack the glass for safe storage and later transport to the Pritchard Laughlin Civic Center for the auction. We would like to thank those who helped in making this very important auction preparation go smoothly: Larry and Susan Everett, Frank and Vicki Wollenhaupt, David Rankin and Lynn Welker. This is not easy work; we really could not do without you.

And to all those who have so graciously offered their help and support for all the work it will take setting up the auction and working auction day, thank you as well. And thanks to the consignors who provided all the wonderful glass.

So start making your selections of the items you are going to bid on now! Make your hotel reservations right away to join us for the auction, March 3rd 2018 as well as the Friday night quarterly meeting and “Auction Preview” presented by Lynn Welker on March 2nd.

This is one of NCC’s most important fund raising activities. See you at the auction!

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

A Great 2017,
A Bright 2018

As I sit here in mid-December getting ready for the Holidays, it is a great chance to reflect on the year in Cambridge Glass and a take a peek at what the future may hold for 2018.

I’m pleased to say it was another very good year for your club. We are in a strong financial position and our Museum has never looked better or been more successful in its outreach and education efforts. There were three very good member meetings – the Auction in March, Convention in June and our Fall Meeting in October.

The Museum had its most successful fourth quarter ever, in collaboration with Cambridge’s Dickens Village celebration. Thanks to the ingenuity of Cindy, Lindy and their whole team we had several stand out bus tours that produced record sales in our Gift Shop. The month of November alone topped what we used to sell in a whole year.

As they wrap up operations for the year, we are looking forward to new carpeting being installed this month and new lighting not long into the New Year. NCC must keep up with the normal wear and tear the Museum experiences during the year, so that each year we can always put our best foot forward.

Our neighboring brick building next door was fully rented for the year. The yellow building is being used effectively for Auction prep and gift shop storage. And, we should have these two properties completely paid for soon. It’s a high NCC priority.

Reports are very encouraging for the 2018 Benefit Auction. Consignments sound great and you can read all about it in this issue. Please make plans now to join us in a couple of months.

Once again in 2017, we saw an increase in attendance at our Annual Convention. Our theme of “Animals” was warmly embraced and we had outstanding education presentations by Lynn Welker and Zak McCamey. We had marvelous displays in Pritchard Laughlin that not only featured animals made by Cambridge, but also over 30 other glass companies. It was a great learning experience and we thank all of our displayers for their generosity in sharing their collections with the rest of us. It was quite an honor.

Speaking of honors, we saw Lynn Welker named a Lifetime Member of NCC, our highest honor and so richly deserved. We also surprised and saluted Jane Filippini as this year’s Phyllis Smith Award recipient. And, we said a hearty thank you to David Ray for his seven consecutive years serving this organization as your President. He got a richly deserved standing O.

In October, Greg Vass organized our Fall Member Meeting with a salute to Fall Colors. Once again, Lynn Welker did the honors as presenter. Our thanks to both of them and all who attended.

Our Annual Fund Drive will finish 2017 up over 7% vs. the previous year. Your Board thanks you so much for your support and this member commitment makes everything we do possible. We’ll have more on this year’s Annual Fund in an upcoming Crystal Ball issue.

For 2018, we are looking to continue to grow our Endowment Fund, which is now approaching a half a million dollars. We’ve also accelerated our budget timing and are being even more goal-oriented. Some top priorities include Museum lighting, continued alterations/improvements of our yellow building, improved storage capabilities and investing in new scanner technology. We also want to boost gift shop stock in support of the great sales we have experienced.

Our June 2018 Convention theme is “Games” and we want to continue making this a fun event that draws Cambridge collectors from around the country. It certainly is a highlight of the year for me and I look forward to seeing all our friends.

Thank you for being a Friend of Cambridge. It is a real honor to serve on your Board and we are all dedicated to advancing our mission of education and preservation each and every year.

We wish you the happiest of New Years and best wishes for a healthy and successful year.

Rick Jones
president@cambridgeglass.org
In the November/December issue of the Crystal Ball, we were busy preparing for the Holiday Season at the museum and “Oh What a Season” it turned out to be! The theme for the museum holiday season was “Christmas at the Glass House”. New during “Christmas at the Glass House” was a Cambridge Arms line demonstration done by Lindy Thaxton that was quite popular. Lindy talked about the history of Cambridge Arms and how to assemble an arrangement. She then chose someone from the group to actually build a centerpiece. Once they learned about the Cambridge Arms and the versatility of each part, many purchased pieces or complete sets. One man that bought a complete set said, “I knew when I held the pieces in my hands, I just had to have them”.

During November and December, 22 bus groups toured the museum from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, New Jersey and even California. Many thanks to Bev Kerr, Dickens Victorian Village Group Tour Coordinator, for her outstanding efforts in scheduling these national group travel companies and to our museum volunteers that met each bus with enthusiasm and smiles on their faces. It isn’t easy to handle a group of 55 people inside the museum and give personal attention to each person, it takes team work. Following is one of the TripAdvisor reviews posted by one of our guests:

Great Docents and Far More Interesting Than I Imagined

First, the Museum people run one of the best museum “tours” I’ve been on. When we were there, the docents were in early 1900s dress which added a nice touch. The tour is about an hour and of course you can spend more time afterwards looking around. Cambridge Glass operated for 50 years or so and created incredibly beautiful glass — everything from door knobs to knife holders to lab equipment and children’s toys.

Dressed and ready to greet the first bus of the holiday season are museum volunteers: (L – R) Sarah Carpenter, Sharon Bachna, Cindy Arent, Betty Sivard, Lindy Thaxton, Sandi Rohrbough and Sharon Miller. It usually takes at least 10 volunteers to greet each motorcoach group.

Bill Eckman and Evalyn O’Reed created a Cambridge Arms masterpiece after the demonstration!
YOU WON’T BELIEVE THE INGENUITY OF FOLKS BACK IN THE DAY. Different parts of the tour have participants making color pencil etchings from the original steel plates used to make the designs that went on the glass. In 15 min, you’ll understand the really fascinating process by which glass gets etched into amazing designs. LOVED IT. Museum is located in town, very easy to find and has a parking lot.

Holiday motorcoach volunteers were: Sandi Rohrbough, Lindy Thaxton, Cindy Arent, Sally Slattery, Betty Sivard, Gary Wiseman, Sharon Miller, Sharon Bachna, Diana McMahon, Sarah Carpenter, Karen Treier, Reggie Gerko, Betty Davis, Margene Osterberg, Eli Evans, Marybelle Teters, Bobbie Henderson and Jeff Ross. A special “Thank you” to these volunteers for their dedication in greeting hundreds of visitors during the holiday season.

The Annual Museum Holiday Open House was held Friday – Sunday Thanksgiving weekend and was very well attended. Visitors caught the spirit of the season as they were led on guided tours of all areas of the museum. They also did lots of shopping in the museum gift shop! On “Shop Small” Saturday, we even had canvas Shop Small bags to pack gift shop purchases courtesy of Cambridge Main Street.

Our holiday marketing efforts were spot on this year. In addition to the museum holiday rack cards, the special days of operation were promoted on the museum Facebook page, newspaper, the NCC, Dickens Victorian Village and Visitors Bureau websites and radio. After posting photos of the Cambridge ornaments that we make and additional items like the Cambridge cup & saucer sets and the Cambridge stem in a gift box promotion, we shipped orders all over the country. Many thanks to our cyber buyers!

The final day of museum operation for 2017 is December 17. We will then be packing up the gift shop, moving the reception desk and other items in preparation for the installation of new carpet. It’s hard to believe that it’s been 17 years since the current carpet was installed. It is now disintegrating and has raised bumps in the high traffic areas. More info will follow in the February issue of the Crystal Ball.

Happy New Year to all and best wishes for a wonderful 2018!

Who wouldn’t want a gift box with two Cambridge champagnes like the ones used in the classic holiday movie, White Christmas? Congratulations to Kinsi (Carpenter) King! Thank you for visiting and shopping at the museum during our Holiday Open House on Small Business Saturday.
NCC members Chuck Eyen and Sherry Crawford visited the museum during the Holiday Open House. They loved the Hollywood display!

Staff and volunteers from the Ohio Glass Museum in Lancaster, Ohio came to the museum for the tour program during the holiday season.

Auction co-manager Bev Acord checking one more item on the proposed auction list.

Do you know the proper terms for the different sizes of plates?

How many different lines made by the Cambridge Glass Company, included a dinner plate?

Recruitment and Retention

When you are out shopping or looking for Cambridge glass, make an effort to share information about NCC. If you sell items online, consider sharing information about NCC with your buyers.
Vice President, Doug Ingraham called the Fall Membership Meeting of the National Cambridge Collectors to order on October 21, 2017 at 7:00 pm.

Doug asked the secretary to read the minutes from the Annual Membership Meeting held on June 23, 2017. A motion was made by Larry Everett and seconded by Frank Wollenhaupt to dispense with the reading of the minutes. The motion was approved. A motion was made by Nancy Finley and seconded by Jim Miller to accept the minutes from the Annual Membership Meeting as published in the September 2017 Crystal Ball. The motion was approved.

Treasurer Sandra Bridwell-Walker gave the treasurer’s report. The balances ending as of September 30, 2017 were as follows: Bank Balance - $82,264.63; Pay Pal - $1,061.31; Endowment - $457,910.68

The Vice Presidents reports were given.

Administration/Endowment – Doug Ingraham reported that there has been a change in policy in regard to donations. These changes now are in line with the IRS requirements. The November Crystal Ball will have an article about the ability of members who are 70 ½ have the option to donate the required distributions from their retirement accounts to be given to NCC tax free. Doug announced that as of today, October 21, 2017, the Endowment account is slightly over $463,000.

Development – Bev and Will Acord gave an auction report. About 95% of the auction items are in. The catalog and pictures will be published in the January 2018 Crystal Ball. Doug thanked the Acords for their hard work preparing for the auction.

Education – Larry Everett thanked Greg Vass for planning a wonderful program of Cambridge Fall Colors. The display was breath-taking. Larry encouraged members to submit articles for the Crystal Ball noting that Freeman does an outstanding job of publishing but would appreciate any submissions. Larry asked for ideas for future programs that would be of interest to the membership. Larry and Lynn provided the membership with an update of the Fenton moulds that had been of interest to the club. They explained why NCC was no longer interested in the moulds that were for sale. Fenton is retaining, for their use, the three moulds NCC was interested in purchasing. These moulds are the snail vase, 1242 vase and the 3400 globe vase. Fenton will be using these moulds to produce items for their gift shop.

Member Services – Freeman Moore reported the goal of Member Services this year will be Recruitment and Retention of members. Freeman noted that communication with members is important for member retention. There are over 500 member households and not all can come to all events so reaching out to these members is vital. Efforts will be made to make NCC more visible to the general public at glass shows and sales with rack cards and brochures.

Museum – Cindy Arent introduced the museum docents who were in attendance, Betty Sivard, Sandy Rohrbaugh, Sandy Bridwell-Walker and Jessica King. Cindy announced that the museum will be open from 12:00 – 4:00 on weekends in November and December. The Open House will be on Thanksgiving weekend. There are 20 tour busses scheduled during these months. The new HVAC unit has been installed on the roof and the city of Cambridge will pay ½ the cost. The carpet in the museum will be replaced after the closing of the museum on December 17th. The LED replacement lighting will be in phases. Phase 1 has been completed and cost $2,000. The raffle at the auction and the rebate from AEP reduced the cost to NCC to approximately $1,000. Phase 2 will replace the vertical lighting in the showcases. Phase 3 will be the ceiling flourescents and some exterior lighting. The storage building has been cleaned up and trash hauled away. The fork lift needs to be repaired so boxes and skids can be put up on shelves.

Committee Reports – None
Old Business – None
New Business – None

There being no further business, Doug asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting. Frank Wollenhaupt made a motion to adjourn the meeting. A second was made by Allan Cohen. The motion was approved.

Following the business meeting, Lynn Welker conducted a very informative program about the Fall Colors of Cambridge. Lynn thanked to the members who brought items for the program. A great Show and Tell concluded the activities for the evening.

Respectfully submitted,
Sharon Miller, secretary

During his convention keynote presentation in 2014, Randy Coe focused his discussion on the impact of European glass designs on American glass manufactures. In 1925 glass manufacturers from around the world were invited to an international glass symposium in Paris, France. Randy noted that the Consolidated Glass Company as greatly influenced the designs of Rene Lalique, but all American glass manufactures were influenced by the famous glass designers in Europe.

Some believe the Cambridge Everglade line was inspired by glassware designs being produced by major European glass manufactures. One of these European companies was Mont Joye Glass Company. Mont Joye operated in France during the late 1800’s and early 1900’s producing decorative enameled glassware and a less expensive version of cameo style glassware which was very popular in Europe.

Several years ago, Cambridge collectors found identical versions of the #23 5” Everglade vase marked “France”. Recently, I purchased this green vase that is nearly identical in design to the 6” #109 Everglade vase. The vase is acid etched to accentuate the relief of the floral design offering a 3-dimensional cameo style appearance.

The leaves and flowers are highlighted with two shades of heavy gold. The base of the vase, which is ground and polished, possesses the Mont Joye stamp. It is clear the Cambridge Glass Company appreciated the glass designs being produced in Europe and incorporated those influences within the Everglade line.
Welcome to the eBay Report. This column features Cambridge glass items that sold on eBay circa November to mid-December, 2017. Selling prices are rounded to the nearest dollar. If no color is mentioned, assume that the piece or part of it being discussed is crystal. Here we go:

Statuesque (Nude Stem) Line

A claret with optic bowl sold for a mere $25. However, one with Royal Blue bowl (no optic, of course) sold for $106.

An ivy ball with Royal Blue top sold for the opening bid of $95. Prices for this once ahh-inspiring piece have really taken a dive.

A seashell-top comport in late (dark) Emerald sold for $101. A true cordial (cupped bowl) with Carmen bowl sold for $218. A single candleholder in Windsor Blue sold for $249. I hope this completes the buyer’s pair.

Animals and Figural items

A Bridge Hound in Amethyst sold for $13. Who says Cambridge glass has to be expensive?

A Rose Lady flower arranger in satinsized Peach Blo sold for $94 on a Buy It Now. While not as large as some of the figural flower frogs, these show a subtlety of design that is worth a second look.

A pair of 4-1/2 inch swans in Ebony with the rare candle inserts sold for $185 on a Buy It Now. I wonder what price these might have garnered, had the seller listed them in auction format? Then again, a pair in Emerald Green sold in early November for $150, so maybe that’s market price. Interestingly, the same seller offered a single swan with the insert, which sold for $114.

A 13 inch swan in Peach Blo swam away at $285, a little more than I would have expected.

A large Bashful Charlotte flower arranger in satinsized Moonlight Blue sold for $215.

A Two Kids flower arranger in very scarce Moonlight Blue sold for $550. (Another one sold back in September for $490.)

A Swan punch bowl with 8 cups sold for $825.

Etched Tableware and Stemware

A #922 cream soup (no liner) etched Rose Point sold for $129.

A gorgeous #707 11 inch low footed cake plate with the #733 etching, dubbed “Deux Coqs” by many collectors, sold for the $25 opening bid. Given the shape and the most artful placing of 8 repetitions of the etching around the plate, I would have expected it to bring more. Then I noticed the two tiny nicks and the $36 shipping quote, which probably explains it. Gosh, I could get that from Los Angeles all the way to Maine via Priority Mail for less than that.

December is here, and you know what that means: time to shop for Michael’s birthday.

A set of seventeen #3400/62 8-1/2 inch plates in Heatherbloom etched Gloria were offered at $180 opening bid, or $250 Buy It Now, but failed to sell. Then the seller relisted them for a $265 Buy It Now price, and they sold. These are going to look great on my table. Thank you to whomever bought them for me; what a great birthday gift! I will be waiting by my front door for the package to arrive, and I will be sure to send you a thank-you note, too.

A set of 8 #3400/71 4-toed 3 inch individual nut dishes in Heatherbloom etched Gloria sold for $250. These are going to look great with the plates; I can’t wait to receive these, too. My readers are so kind and generous!

A #3400/52 covered butter in Willow Blue etched Apple Blossom sold for $395, while the #1091 sauce boat and stand in the same color and pattern brought $295.
A #3400/38 80 ounce ball jug with four #3400/38 tumblers, etched Minerva, sold for $482. You won’t see many of these floating around out there.

A pair of #1604 2-piece hurricane lamps etched Rose Point sold for $750, which struck me as high for these.

Gold, Silver, and Enamel Decorations

One of the headscratchers for this month was the #3500/57 3-part covered candy in Crown Tuscan with gold encrusted Wildflower etching. It was described accurately and listed correctly, yet brought only $38. There must be hundreds of these in existence with Portia and Rose Point etchings, and some with Diane, too; but I can’t remember the last time I saw one in CT with Wildflower. Yet a #278 11 inch vase in Ebony with gold encrusted Wildflower etching brought $270. Go figure.

A pair of #3500 13 ounce footed tumblers with Royal Blue bowls and #1037 gold decoration sold for $126. The same seller then offered another set, this time four, which sold for $250 – almost exactly the same per-stem price as the others.

A #206 cologne in Helio with #528 Egypt band decoration in gold sold for $129. The shank looked ever so slightly long for a cologne, so I have to wonder if it originally had a dauber stopper. If the dauber breaks, the heartbeat can be eased somewhat by having it ground down to a point where it looks like a non-dauber stopper.

A #3122 cocktail with Carmen bowl, etched and gold encrusted Diane, sold for $295. Aww, man, there was only one?

A #3400/102 5-1/2 inch vase in Carmen with white enamel Japonica (Hawthorne) decoration sold for $2,038. This, after failing to get the $1,000 opening bid the first time it was listed by the seller.

Miscellaneous

A Nearcut 2837 pitcher in the Peacock pattern strutted away for the opening bid of $100. I wish there was more Nearcut for me to report on, but maybe it’s being listed under EAPG.

A Cambridge prism style advertising sign in Willow Blue sold for $100 on a Buy It Now. An Amber one brought a surprising $149. I’d love to see an article on these, along with a list of colors in which they are known (as well as the author’s opinions as to which ones are most difficult to find.)

One of my favorite items to show up during the reporting period was a #414 humidor with stopper in Emerald Green. This showstopper didn’t last long at “$125 or Best Offer.”

One seller billed his item as “Cambridge Candelabra the way you want it.” This featured the stocky candleholder, a 3-way arm with bobeches and prisms, plus a 3-way arm with peg vases (for versatility), and a peg Blue Jay in the center candle socket. It went for a very reasonable $149.

A #1 Keg Set with Emerald Green barrel and 6 barrel whiskeys, and Ebony stand and stopper, sold for $225 on a Buy It Now. The only thing missing was the round tray in Ebony, on which it is all supposed to rest. These aren’t super-distinctive, but a Cambridge collector who studies his books will recognize one on eBay, even if the seller doesn’t. That’s what patience, plus an eBay saved search of “round black glass tray,” can achieve.

A #1296 12 inch footed vase with Peach Blo top, etched Gloria, sold for $290. It had a lovely border etch at the top that incorporated the Gloria flower – something I don’t see too often.

A #3400 ball jug in Ebony plus 5 #3400/112 tumblers (the style with the crease or waist about 1/3 of the way down from the rim), all set in Farber Brothers Krome Kraft holders, sold for $415.

A Springtime #1253 12 inch vase (the one with the tulip design) in crystal satin set in fancy ormolu mounts with a porcelain medallion surprised me by selling for $595.

That’s all for now. If you see any interesting Cambridge glass on eBay that you think I should be watching or reporting on, or if you have any other input, feel free to contact me at LAGlass@pacbell.net. Until next month, happy Cambridge hunting!
Holiday Table Settings

3121 Rose Point stemware highlights this elegant table.

The buffet table is highlighted with candelabrums and serving pieces. Are those swans waiting to eat some pumpkin pie?

What do you do with a punch bowl? Serve punch of course!

Amber is the color of choice for this Thanksgiving table set for two.

Send in photos of your holiday table setting featuring your Cambridge glass and we’ll include them in a future issue.
